

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM N-188X

AMENDED INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURN

Purpose of Form N-188X

Use Form N-188X to correct your income tax return, Form N-11, N-12, or N-13.

Note: Taxpayers cannot use Form N-188X to amend their tax returns for taxable year 2001 or thereafter if they did not make a contribution to the Hawaii school-level minor repairs and maintenance special fund on their original tax return but want to make a contribution on their amended tax return. They must file an amended return for 2001 or thereafter on the appropriate tax return. Use the version of the appropriate tax return for the year (e.g., 2002) being amended, write the word "AMENDED" in the upper left hand corner of the return, and fill in the return with all the correct information. Attach a statement to the amended return explaining the changes to income, deductions, and credits. The amended tax return must be filed within twenty months and ten days after the due date for the original return for such taxable year. A contribution once made whether by an original or amended return may not be revoked.

Note: Nonresidents and part-year residents cannot use Form N-188X to amend Form N-15. They must file an amended return on Form N-15. Use the version of Form N-15 for the year (e.g., 2002) being amended, write the word "AMENDED" in the upper left hand corner of the return, and fill in the return with all the correct information. Attach a statement to the amended return explaining the changes to income, deductions, and credits.

Note: The filing of an amended income tax return is required instead of a report to the Department of Taxation when there is a change in taxable income for federal income tax purposes.

If you are changing your Hawaii return, you may also have to change your federal return. Please note that it often takes several months to process Form N-188X. We will figure the interest and will either include it in your refund or bill you for it.

You should use Form N-109, Application for Tentative Refund, instead of Form N-188X in some cases. Use Form N-109 if:

- you are applying for a tentative refund resulting from a net operating loss, AND
- less than one year has elapsed since the end of the year in which the loss or credit arose.

Information on Income, Deductions, etc.

If you have questions, such as what income is taxable or what expenses are deductible, the instructions for the return you are amending may help you. Be sure to use the Tax Table, Tax Rate Schedules, or Capital Gains Tax Worksheet for the proper year to figure the corrected tax. The related schedules and forms may also help you. If you need more information, contact the district office where the original return was filed.

Death of Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund as surviving spouse filing a joint return with the decedent, write "deceased" and show the date of death in the name and address space of Form N-188X. Also write "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she may also sign. All filers requesting a refund due a decedent (except if you are filing as surviving spouse filing a joint return with the decedent) must file Form N-110, Statement of Person Claiming a Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

What Attachments to the Return are Required

Attach the appropriate schedule or form to this amended return to explain any change in income, deduction or credit if the individual income tax return and instructions require a schedule or form. For example, if there is a change in the capital gain item, complete the Capital Gains Tax Worksheet and/or Schedule D-1 and attach it or both to this amended return.

Where to File

File with the district office where your original return was filed. See page 2 for addresses.

When to File

File Form N-188X after you filed your original return. Generally, Form N-188X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was due or 3 years after the date you filed it, whichever is later. A Form N-188X based on a net operating loss carryback generally must be filed within 3 years after the due date of the return for the tax year of the net operating loss.

Penalty

You may be charged a penalty of 20% of taxes not completely paid within 60 days of the prescribed filing date of the return.

The law provides a penalty of 5% of the tax due for each month or part of a month that the return is late, but not more than 25%.

Interest

The interest rate for not paying tax when due is 2/3 of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month it remains unpaid.

Preparer Information

If you fill in your own tax return or someone prepares it and does not charge you, the "Paid Preparer's Information" area should remain blank.

Generally, anyone who is paid to prepare your tax return must fill in the blanks in the "Paid Preparer's Information" area of your tax return, and sign in the space provided in the same area. The preparer may furnish his or her alternative identifying number for income tax return preparers (PTIN) instead of his or her social security number.

If you have questions about whether a preparer is required to sign your return, please contact any district office.

The person required to sign your return MUST complete the required preparer information and:

- Sign it, by hand, in the space provided for the preparer's signature (signature stamps or labels are not acceptable).
- Give you a copy of your return in addition to the copy filed with the Department of Taxation.

Net Operating Loss

Note: Hawaii did not adopt the 5-year net operating loss carryback provision of the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act (P. L. No. 107-147).

Attach a statement showing how you figured your net operating loss. You may use Schedule A of Form N-109 for this purpose.

Attachments

If you are filing an amended return due to a net operating loss or due to a change in taxable income for federal income tax purposes, attach copies of your original federal Form 1040 and federal schedules A, B, and D to Form N-188X.

If the issue has been settled, check the "No" box and if a change was made, use the adjusted figures in column A.

Item (c) — Check the proper box. Any change made by the Internal Revenue Service on your federal return must be reported to the Department of Taxation within 90 days after the federal change is finally determined.

Item (d) — Filing status. If you are changing from separate returns to a joint return, both you and your spouse must sign the amended return.

Line 1. — Total Income. On page 2, Part II, explain any changes you make on this line. To figure this amount, add income from all sources, such as wages, interest, dividends, and net profit from business. For Form N-11 filers, this amount is your federal adjusted gross income amount.

Use the reportable income for the respective years as follows:

2000, 2001, 2002, and 2003 N-11, line 7; N-12, line 19; N-13, line 11.

For 2000 and subsequent years, the standard deduction for an individual who can be claimed as a dependent on the tax return of another taxpayer is the greater of (a) $500, or (b) the individual's earned income (but not more than the appropriate amount shown in the chart above).
